

SENTINEL

Philippine Items.
—The city yesterday with forty-one volunteers for the 6th Indiana yesterday morning, confirms the announcement that the bridge over Green River, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, has been completed, and informs us that the advance of Gen. Buell's army has commenced to move, the 6th Indiana having crossed the river at fifteen minutes past 1 o'clock on Sunday morning.

—Major Horace Bell.—The New Albany Ledger, some time during the latter part of last November, published a paragraph reflecting severely upon the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this paragraph. Gentlemen with whom we have conversed, officers and others, as sure as we can, the Ledger's charges are altogether false. We think, therefore, that the Ledger ought to make public and honorable reparation to Major Bell.

—Major Horace Bell.—The Dining Hall, on Illinois street, last yesterday morning a package of paper money between the Palmer House and the La Belle Saloon. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning the same to Mr. Burt, at his Dining Saloon.

Democratic State Convention.

Pursuant to adjournment, this body convened in Metropolitan Hall Thursday morning at 8 o'clock.

The President, Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, called the Convention to order.
On motion a call of the Convention was ordered by counties, and the responses of those present were as follows:

Present: Adams, Allen, Bartholomew, Boone, Blackford, Brown, Carroll, Cass, Clark, Clay, Clinton, Crawford, Davies, Dearborn, Dekalb, Delaware, Elkhart, Fayette, Floyd, Fountain, Fulton, Franklin, Gibson, Grant, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hannock, Hendricks, Henry, Howard, Huntington, Jackson, Jasper, Jay, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Knox, Kosciusko, Lagrange, Lawrence, Madison, Marion, Marshall, Martin, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Newton, Noble, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Parke, Perry, Pike, Porter, Posey, Pulaski, Putnam, Randolph, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Spencer, Stark, St. Joseph, Steuben, Sullivan, Switzerland, Tippecanoe, Tipton, Union, Vanderburg, Vermillion, Vigo, Wabash, Warren, Warrick, Wayne, Wells, White and Whitley.

—Absent: Benton, Dubois, Lake, Miami and Washington.

Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, of Marion, the call of the counties being concluded, rose to withdraw the name of W. H. Talbot as a candidate for Treasurer of State. Mr. McDonald was eloquent in his eulogium upon the sterling qualities of that gentleman.

—He was a staunch Democrat; a man who was willing henceforth, as he had always proved himself heretofore, to do all that lay in his power for the success of the Democratic ticket and the triumph of Democratic principles. Mr. Talbot had been a candidate for the nomination for Treasurer of State. That harmony might be promoted and every thing done in as far as might be in Mr. Talbot's power to promote the victory which was certain for the Democracy in October next, he withdrew his name from the list of candidates.

The Convention, seconded by the President, endorsed the high eulogium pronounced upon Mr. Talbot by Mr. McDonald, and applauded his self-sacrificing patriotism.

—Treasurer of State.
There being no other candidate for Treasurer of State, before the Convention, except the Hon. Matthew L. Brett, of Davies, he was nominated by acclamation.

—Secretary of State.
The Convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Secretary of State. The nominations were: Charles L. Barker, of Madison, Benjamin F. Jones, of Bartholomew, Dr. J. T. Henderson, of Howard, Dr. James S. Athol, of Marion, Hon. W. B. Beach, of Marion, W. H. Jones, of Allen and John T. Dunn, of Laporte.

After the first ballot Messrs. Henderson, Dunn and W. H. Jones were withdrawn.

The second ballot resulted as follows: Barker, 38; B. F. Jones, 140; Athol, 264 and Beach, 33; whole number of votes cast, 501, necessary to a choice, 251.

Dr. Athol having received 264 votes, he was declared the nominee of the Convention, and on motion, his nomination was ratified unanimously.

—Auditor of State.
The candidates in nomination were Joseph Ristine, of Fountain, J. V. Bemisdafer, of Decatur, Scott Noel, of Parke, J. C. Lutz, of Wayne, and Willis D. Hargrove, of Gibson.

Before the balloting was proceeded with the name of Mr. Noel was withdrawn.

The result of the first ballot was: Ristine, 266; Bemisdafer, 114; Hargrove, 74; Lutz, 32.

Joseph Ristine having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared by the President the nominee of the Convention and his nomination was unanimously ratified.

—Attorney General.
The candidates were Bayless W. Hanna, of Vigo; J. O. Applegate, of Carroll; Jeremiah Smith, of Randolph; E. Johnson, of Henry; John Baker, of Knox; James A. Scott, of Putnam, and Oscar B. Hord, of Decatur.

After the first and second ballots, Messrs. Scott and Baker were withdrawn, and Judge Applegate, speaking for himself and declining any further favors from his friends, said that he thanked them that they had brought his name before the Convention. If he was not a good fighter, he was a willing fighter; and he could fight as well in the ranks as at the head of a column. He pledged himself to use his utmost endeavors for the success of the ticket. In fighting for the Democracy he knew he was fighting for his country. The Democracy and Almighty God and he spoke in no irreverent spirit; could alone save this unhappy country. But God did not do for man what he could do for himself. Therefore we must work—we, the Democracy—and we should receive God's blessing.

On the third ballot Hord received 354, Hanna, 120, Smith 24.

The President declared Oscar B. Hord duly nominated, and on motion of Bayless W. Hanna, his nomination was unanimously ratified.

—Suffrage of Public Instruction.
The candidates in nomination were Alex. J. Douglass, of Whites; E. C. Hibben, of Rush; S. L. Rugg, of Allen, and Milton B. Hopkins, of Clinton.

After the first ballot Mr. Douglass was withdrawn, and the result of the second ballot was as follows:
Rugg, 94; Hibben, 136; Hopkins, 267.

The following is a statement of the vote by counties for the candidates for nomination for Secretary of State, Attorney General and Superintendent of Public Instruction on the ballot which nominated them:

M. A. O. Packard, of Marshall, offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Indiana have confidence in the political course and conduct of the Indiana State Sentinel, and recommend it to the support of the loyal men of the State.

The President, stating that the business for which the Convention assembled had been completed, returned his thanks for the aid afforded by each individual in presiding over its deliberations. The result of these deliberations he firmly believed would ensure to the substantial good of the country. He urged upon all activity and vigilance against a wary enemy, and predicted the triumph not only of the ticket nominated, but of Democratic principles ultimately everywhere.

The Hon. Cyrus L. Dunham being called upon, spoke briefly and patriotically.

On motion, the thanks of the Convention were tendered to the President and Secretaries for the able manner in which they had performed their arduous duties.

On motion, the proceedings of the Convention were ordered to be published in the Indiana State Sentinel and all other Democratic papers.

On motion of Joseph E. McDonald the Convention adjourned sine die.

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, Pres.
J. J. BINGHAM, Secretary.

The Journal stated on the morning of the assembling of the State Convention that "tickets will be issued to men who are known to be sound in their hostility to the Government, and their warm sympathies with Southern traitors."

The Committee acknowledge that in one instance, and in only one, so far as its members were aware of the character of those to whom tickets were given, a ticket was issued of the kind described by the Journal. A ticket was sent, as a matter of courtesy, to the editor of that print, one of the very few men in Indiana who are disunionists at heart, and thus sympathizing with Southern traitors, but he was deterred from attending by his disinclination to face John G. Davis.

THE STAR CITY SALOON.—This is one of the most elegant establishments in the city, located on South Illinois street, north of the Farmers' Hotel—No. 530. O. Hanneman is the gentleman who always waits upon the patrons of the "Star City" with unapproachable suavity in modis. Many a pleasant evening have gentlemen spent at the "Star," and many a pleasant evening will they spend again.

HEAVY AVERAGE OF HOGS.—At the slaughtering and packing establishment of Messrs. Ferguson & Mansur, in this vicinity, thirty-four hundred head of hogs were killed for one man, Mr. Samuel Mansur, of one of the Eastern cities, averaging 24 pounds net. These hogs were all certainly heavy weights, and they were all raised in Indiana.

THE SWORD FOR ADJUTANT W. M. HARRISON.—The sword, sash and belt, for Adjutant W. M. Harrison, of the 6th Indiana, (2nd Irb) have been purchased and are now on exhibition in the window of W. H. Talbot's Jewelry Store. The committee—Mr. Samuel W. Gulick and H. C. Dill, return their hearty thanks to the citizens of Indianapolis for their liberal donations. They will leave the city Saturday for Madison, when the sword will be presented to the gallant Adjutant. The sword is very beautifully engraved by Mr. E. Reed, who is connected with Talbot's Jewelry establishment.

The Indiana Sentinel offers to bet some one a hundred dollars. Of course this is only a poetic flight—editors not being of the dollars kind, but only men of cents—Louisville Journal.

The Glens, Indianapolis, notwithstanding the hard times, are now selling an enormous amount of goods. Glens' mammoth store in Indianapolis—the name has become as familiar as a "household word" throughout the State, and is lapped by the children; hence it has become the great center of attraction for all visitors to the city. At their establishment it is well known, goods can be bought at the lowest cash prices, and the best quality are kept in their houses. When you friends go to Indianapolis we hope they will buy the New York store a visit—Franklin Journal.

—The Louisville Journal.—This evening's paper apart for the benefit of Miss Ince, when she will play Camille in the play of that name. Mr. Albaugh will appear as Armand, and she will be well supported in the other characters by Messrs. Ashmer, Hamilton, Right, and Madames Pope, Ashmer, &c. By the way, the following, out from the San Francisco Golden Age, will prove interesting to our readers:

INCE.
The charm is past, and I must sink
Back to the plodding world again.
No more with burning soul to drink
The wine of life, and then to die.
The words that fell like burning rain,
No more to burn in the power,
Nor in the rapture of the hour,
Nor in the rapture of the hour,
Forget the bonds my spirit wore.

They are also excellent for Diseases and Weakness peculiar to Females, where a Tonic is required. No lady who is subject to headache and nervousness, should be without them, as they are revivifying in their action.

The many certificates which have been tendered us, and the letters which are daily received, are convincing proof that among the women these Bitters have given a satisfaction which no others have ever done before. No woman in the land should be without them, and those who once use them, will not fail to keep a supply.

Dr. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS
Are prepared by an eminent and skillful physician, who has used them successfully in his practice for the last twenty-five years. The proprietor, before purchasing the exclusive right to manufacture and sell Dr. J. Bovee Dods' Celebrated Imperial Wine Bitters, had them tested by two distinguished medical practitioners, who pronounced them a valuable remedy for disease.

Although the medical men of the country, as a general thing, disapprove of Patent Medicines, yet we do not believe that a respectable Physician can be found in the United States, acquainted with their medical properties, who will not highly approve Dr. J. Bovee Dods' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS.

In all newly settled places, where there is always a large quantity of decaying timber, from which a poisonous miasma is created, these Bitters should be used every morning before breakfast.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS
Are composed of a pure and unadulterated Wine, combined with Barberry, Solum and Seal, Camfrey, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, Spikenard, Chamomile Flowers, and Gentian. They are manufactured by Dr. Dods himself, who is an experienced and successful Physician, and hence should not be classed among the quack nostrums which flood the country, and against which the Medical Profession are so justly prejudiced.

These truly valuable Bitters have been so thoroughly tested by all classes of the community for almost twenty years, that they are now deemed indispensable as a Tonic, Medicine and a Beverage.

MEDICAL.

TO THE PEOPLE
Of the United States.
In the month of December, 1859, the undersigned for the first time offered for sale to the public Dr. J. Bovee Dods' Imperial Wine Bitters, and in this short period they have given such universal satisfaction to the many thousands of persons who have tried them, that it is now an established article. The amount of bodily and mental misery arising simply from a neglect of small complaints is surprising, and it is therefore of the utmost importance that a strict attention to the least and most trifling bodily ailment should be had. For diseases of the body must invariably affect the mind. The subscribers now only ask a trial of
